Sunday Farmers' Market

Our first Sunday market begins this weekend, May 29. It will operate from 10 - 3. Check out many new vendors with some great products. All our food service will be open for breakfast and lunch. This Sunday the Saskatoon Fiddle Club will be here from 1 - 2 p.m. and Judy Hill from Painted Faces will be joining us on Market days doing kid's face painting. The kids will love her work and/or you might also! Remember there is Free Parking here on Sundays. If Saturdays are just too busy - give us a try on a Sunday. Take advantage of a more relaxing day to support your local producer and soak up the ambiance of a market. The new season is just starting, the weather has been co-operating thus far for our farmers' plantings. Watch for more vendors attending all markets as the gardens start to produce.

New arrivals this past week included asparagus, fiddle heads, green onions, baby greens and spinach. Our greenhouse producers are also filling in the gaps with new tomatoes, cucumbers and peppers. We currently have a fantastic variety of bedding and potted plants. They are healthy, happy and look amazing. What a colorful time of year! Check out one of our greenhouse producers G & R Market Gardens greenhouse at this time of year.

Gluten Free Food Fair

Sunday, May 29 is also the date for the 2nd Annual Gluten Free Food Fair. It will run indoors at the market from noon - 3. Sample and enjoy many tasty dishes and learn more about Gluten Free Foods.

Pass the Word

If you have a place to post a poster for us, we would be most thankful. The link is on our home page for you to download. Thanks so much for supporting our market and taking the time to pass the word about one of the best things in Saskatoon.

New vendor joining our market later this summer will be Hestia Organics. She will be selling Certified Organic grains and oilseeds.
